

November Movies

November 4 – Six Minutes to Midnight

Summer 1939. Influential families in Nazi Germany have sent their daughters to a finishing school in an English seaside town to learn the language and be ambassadors for a future looking National Socialist. A teacher there sees what is coming and is trying to raise the alarm. But the authorities believe he is the problem. Drama/Thriller. PG-13 for some violence. 1 hour 39 minutes.

November 11 – Blithe Spirit

A screenwriter suffering from writer's block (Dan Stevens) invites a medium (Judi Dench) to perform a séance in an attempt to spark inspiration. But when the medium accidentally summons the spirit of his jealous first wife, the screenwriter and his aspiring-actress bride are thrust into an interdimensional love triangle. Comedy/Fantasy. PG-13 for suggestive reference and some drug material. 1 hour 39 minutes.

November 18 – 12 Mighty Orphans

The true story of the Mighty Mites, the football team of a Fort Worth orphanage who, during the Great Depression, went from playing without shoes—or even a football—to playing for the Texas state championships. Over the course of their winning season these underdogs and their resilient spirit became an inspiration to their city, state, and an entire nation in need of a rebound. The architect of their success was Rusty Russell, a legendary high school coach who shocked his colleagues by giving up a privileged position so he could teach and coach at an orphanage. Few knew Rusty's secret: that he himself was an orphan. Recognizing that his scrawny players couldn't beat the other teams with brawn, Rusty developed innovative strategies that would come to define modern football. History/Drama. PG-13 for violence, language, some suggestive references, smoking and teen drinking. 1 hour 58 minutes.
